PREFACE.

This bibliography is the second of a series of authors' catalogues, each relating to one of the more prominent linguistic stocks of North America, which it is proposed to issue under the direction of the Bureau of Ethnology. Like its predecessor, upon the Eskimo language, published early in the present year, and its successor, upon the Iroquois, now in an advanced state of preparation, it has been compiled mainly from the writer's Proof-Sheets of a Bibliography of the Languages of the North American Indians, a quarto volume of nearly 1,200 pages, of which a small number of copies were printed in 1885 and distributed to collaborators. It was the intention to publish that volume in due time, with such emendations, corrections, and insertions as might present themselves after examination by those interested in the subject; but of late it has for many reasons been deemed more desirable to publish the material in separate parts, each relating, as stated above, to one of the more prominent linguistic stocks of North America.

As stated in the Proof-Sheets and in the Eskimo Bibliography, the material for these catalogues has been gathered during personal visits to the more prominent public and private libraries of this country, Canada, England, and France and by correspondence with missionaries, Indian agents, publishers and printers of Indian books, and owners of Americana. No opportunity has been lost to title and describe books at first hand, and in the present instance it has been found necessary to mark with an asterisk but a very small percentage of titles, whether of manuscripts, of articles in serial journals, or of books. Indeed, the author can scarcely hope to be so fortunate in dealing with any other of the linguistic groups as he has been with the Siouan. Many of those who have fashioned the literature of the language are still living; with a number of them he has been in daily contact for a number of years, and with nearly all of those still living he has been in correspondence during the past eight years. Through their aid it has been possible to make a fairly complete list of the linguistic material relating to this family of languages.

In recording this matter the dictionary plan has been followed to its extreme limit, the subject and tribal indexes, references to libraries, &c. being included in one alphabetic series. This system has been found to work so well in the Bibliography of the Eskimo Language that the writer is more than ever confirmed in his views of its excellence.

All works are entered under the author's name when known—translators being treated as authors—and under first word of title (not an article or a preposition) when the name of the author is not known. A cross reference is given from the first word of each title in the native languages, whether the work be anonymous or not. All titular matter, including cross references thereto, is in a larger, all index matter in a smaller type.

The biographies have been furnished in most cases by the persons themselves.

In detailing contents and in adding notes respecting contents, the spelling of proper names used in the works themselves has been followed and so far as possible the language of the respective writers is given. In the index entries of tribal names the compiler has adopted that spelling which seemed to him the best.

Works are given chronologically under each author, each work being followed through all its editions before the next one is entered.

Each author's name, with his titles &c., is entered in full but once, i. e., in its proper alphabetic order; all other references to him are by initials only.

The publications in the Siouan language cover perhaps a wider range than those of any other linguistic group of North America, including the whole Bible, school books, periodicals, &c. Nearly every dialect is represented in print or in manuscript, either by dictionaries or extensive vocabularies, and, of five of the languages at least, somewhat pretentious grammars have been prepared.

The earliest record of the Siouan languages mentioned herein is the vocabulary of Hennepin, compiled about 1680. The earliest printed vocabulary is that of the Naudowessi, in Carver's travels, first published in 1778. The earliest text is the Winnebago Prayer Book of Mazzuchelli, published in Detroit in 1833, followed, in 1834, by the Oto Hymn Book of Merrill and the Osage First Book of Montgomery and Requa.

The first publications in the remaining dialects of the Siouan stock are: the Sioux Spelling Book of Stevens, in 1836; in Santee, Extracts from Genesis and two other works by Renville, the History of Joseph by the Messrs. Pond, and the Dakota First Reading Book by Riggs and Pond, all in 1839. In 1843 Messrs. Hamilton and Irvin printed on their own press the first Iowa work, an elementary book; in 1850 there was issued a similar work in the Omaha, under the superintendence of Rev. E. McKenney; and in 1873 one in the Ponka by Rev. J. Owen Dorsey. In the Hidatsa the first text is by Dr. Matthews: a grammar and dictionary issued in 1873. The Siouan is one of the few linguistic stocks of America in which the whole Bible has been printed, Messrs. Williamson and Riggs having issued the complete work in 1880 in the Santee dialect. Portions of the Scripture have also been printed in the Omaha, Iowa, Oto, and Missouri, and record will be found in the present work of portions in manuscript in the Hidatsa and the Yankton.

The best collection of texts in the Siouan languages that I have seen is in the library of Major J. W. Powell, Washington, D. C.; the best collections of Siouan literature are those in the Library of Congress and in the British Museum.

My thanks are due to Rev. J. Owen Dorsey, of the Bureau of Ethnology, who has kindly translated the Siouan titles for me.

The publication has recently been resumed, the first number of Vol. VI appearing, under date of December, 1886, as an eight-page sheet, of smaller size than the earlier issues, and now printed entirely in the Yankton. The editors are Revs. J. W. Cook and E. Ashley and it is issued from Greenwood, Dak., by the Niobrara convocation. The subscription price has been increased to 60 cents per annum.

The various issues contain communications from most of the more prominent Dakota writers and include much of interest to the philologist.

Mr. Cleveland was born at Columbus, Miss., April 20, 1845; was graduated from Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y., in 1869, and from the Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Conn., in 1872; was ordained deacon in the same year and went to the Indian mission field in October, 1872; ordained priest in 1873. His first mission was at the Lower Brulé Agency, Dakota Territory, whence he removed to the Yankton Indian

Agency in 1874, where he had a mission among the Sioux Indians at White Swan's camp; established a new mission among the Sicangu, or Upper Brulé Sioux, then located on Beaver Creek, Nebraska, at Spotted Tail Agency, in June, 1875. On the removal of Red Cloud and Spotted Tail Agencies to the Missouri River in 1877, Mr. Cleveland returned to the Yankton Agency and took charge, as principal, of St. Paul's Mission Boarding School for Sioux Boys and Young Men. During his stay there he was one of the editors of Anpao.

Spotted Tail's and Red Cloud's peoples having been removed to their present locations, he returned to his work among the Upper Brulés and Ogalalas at the Rosebud Agency, Dakota Territory, in January, 1879, where he has since resided, conducting, with the aid of others, and supervising, under Bishop Hare, the missions and mission school work at both the Pine Ridge and Rosebud Agencies. For the past two years he has also been principal of St. Mary's Mission Boarding School for Sioux Boys and Girls, 12 miles from Rosebud Agency, on Antelope Creek, Dakota Territory.

During his stay at the Rosebud Agency Mr. Cleveland translated into the Dakota tongue considerable portions of Foster's Story of the Bible, The Church Catechism Illustrated, and a number of hymns. With the aid of Rev. Philip Deloria he has translated the whole of Oxenden's Pastoral Office, and with Rev. Joseph C. Taylor the whole of the Calvary Catechism. He has also made several other translations of minor importance.

Mr. Cleveland assisted Rev. Dr. Riggs in his revision of the Dakota Dictionary, supplying the material necessary for introducing the Titonwan dialect throughout the book, and was one of a committee of three to revise the Dakota hymnal used in the missions.

In 1885 Mr. Cleveland was appointed rural dean of the western or Niobrara deanery of Southern Dakota.

Mr. Cook was born at Bethel, Vt., March 12, 1836. His parents removing in 1840 to Circleville, Ohio, Mr. Cook was educated at Greenway Boarding School, Springfield, Ohio, and at Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio, graduating in the class of 1860. He studied theology at the Philadelphia Divinity School and at the General Theological Seminary, New York City, graduating from the former in 1864. In this year he was ordained deacon and in 1865 was made a priest. From that time until the end of 1867 Mr. Cook was in charge of churches in the East, going thence as missionary to Cheyenne, Wyo., where he organized a church and built a church, rectory, and school. He remained at Cheyenne until April 25, 1870.

On May 9, 1870, Mr. Cook began his labors as missionary to the Yankton Indians, among whom he has remained ever since. He has shown great energy in his work, having built a church at the agency and two at the ends of the reservation, to each of which a day school is attached.

Dakota Tawaxitku Kin, | or | the Dakota Friend. | Published by the Dakota Mission. | Vol. I. St. Paul, Minnesota, November, 1850. No. I[–Vol. II. August, 1852. No. VIII]. Edited by G. H. Pond.

A four-page, twelve-column paper, issued monthly, printed partly in Santee Dakota, partly in English, most articles being printed in both languages, though occasionally only in the one or the other. An illustrated heading was added to issue No. 7, vol. 1. Vol. 1 ended with the issue of October, 1851, vol. 2 beginning January, 1852, with the size of the sheet much enlarged. The publication was suspended with the issue of August of the same year, in which number the following editorial notice appears: "The Dakota Mission deems it undesirable, while the Indians are so unsettled, to continue the Friend. If the prospect is more encouraging it will be resumed hereafter."

There is much of interest to the philologist in this paper: lessons for learners, grammatic forms, vocabularies, &c.

The meaning of the Dakota words in the title is: Dakota his-helper the.

It comprises 72 stories and myths and 48 letters, each with interlinear translation, explanatory notes, and free translation; 544 pp. 4°, are stereotyped.

Manuscript, 800 pp. folio. Will form Part II, Vol. VI, Contributions to North American Ethnology.

—— [¢egiha dictionary: ¢egiha-English and English-¢egiha.]

Manuscript, 22,000 slips. Contains 20,000 words alphabetically arranged. Will form Part III, Vol. VI, Contributions to North American Ethnology.

—— [Letters and myths in the ¢egiha language.]

Manuscript, 200 pp. folio. Consists of 274 letters and 8 myths which were dictated by Omaha Indians. It was intended to incorporate them in Vol. VI, Part I, Contributions to North American Ethnology, but the material already in type for that volume was so extensive as to preclude this.

Concerning the publication of his ¢egiha material, Mr. Dorsey writes as follows in The American Antiquarian of September, 1886:

"The Director of the Bureau of Ethnology has proposed to publish Vol. VI in three parts: texts, dictionary, and grammar. Part I, 'Myths, Stories, and Letters,' will contain an introduction by the Director, one by the author, and the myths, legends, ghost stories, historical papers, and 48 of the 300 epistles * * * with interlinear translations, critical notes, and free English translations. Of this body of texts, 544 pages, 4°, have been stereotyped at the Government Printing Office since March, 1882. Part I cannot be published before the completion of the other parts. The other letters and several myths gained since 1880 must be reserved for publication in another volume. Part II, the dictionary, will have a twofold arrangement, Indian-English and English-Indian. Up to July, 1885, over 16,000 Indian-English entries were transliterated and arranged in alphabetical order. No more has been done, on account of frequent interruptions. From November, 1882, to February, 1883, the author was in Indian Territory, collecting similar information in the cognate ¢egiha dialects, Kansas, Osage, and Quapaw, which material, however, is too extensive to be admitted into Vol. VI. The preparation of 'Omaha Sociology,' the correction of proof for Dr. Riggs's Dakota Dictionary, and the collection of vocabularies &c. from Oregon tribes have occasioned further delays. Lastly, since July, 1885, the author has co-operated with the other workers of the Bureau in the preparation of an Indian synonymy, giving special attention to the Dakota or Siouan, Athapascan, Caddoan, Kusan, Takilman, and Yakonan linguistic families. Even with uninterrupted attention hereafter, it will require at least two years for the completion of the dictionary, to say nothing of the grammar."

—— [Linguistic material of the Iowa, Oto, and Missouri.]

Manuscript, 1,000 pp. folio. Consists of myths, stories, and letters, with interlinear translations, explanatory notes, and free translations, a dictionary of 9,000 words, and a grammar.

—— [Linguistic material in the Kansa dialect.]

Manuscript, described as follows in the Fourth Annual Report of the Bureau of Ethnology, p. xli: "Most of the pages of [a copy of] the second edition of the Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages were filled. He [Mr. Dorsey] also obtained grammatic notes, material for a dictionary of about three thousand words; texts, consisting of myths, historical papers, and letters (epistles) dictated in the original by the Indians, to be prepared with interlinear translations; critical notes and free English translations; an account of the social organization of the tribe, with names of gentes, proper names of members of each gens, &c., the kinship system and marriage laws, with charts; an account of the mourning and war customs, with a curious chart (one similar being used by the Osage), prepared by the leading war chief of the tribe, from one inherited from his grandfather; a partial classification of the flora and fauna known to the tribe; and maps drawn by the natives, with native local names."

—— [Linguistic material in the Winnebago language.]

Manuscript, 100 pp. folio and 2,100 slips. Consists of a letter (with interlinear translation, notes, and free translation), grammatic notes, and a dictionary of 2,000 words.

These manuscripts are in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology.

James Owen Dorsey was born in Baltimore, Md., in 1848. He attended the Central High School (now the City College) in 1862 and 1863, taking the classical course. Illness caused him to abandon his studies when a member of the second year class. In a counting room from 1864 to 1866. Taught from September, 1866, to June, 1867. Entered the preparatory department of the Theological Seminary of Virginia in September, 1867, and the junior class of the seminary in September, 1869. Was ordained a deacon of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States by the bishop of Virginia, Easter day, 1871. Entered upon his work among the Ponka Indians, in Dakota Territory, in May of that year. Had an attack of scarlet fever in April, 1872, and one of typho-malarial fever in July, 1873. Owing to this illness, he was obliged to give up the mission work in August, 1873, soon after he had learned to talk to the Indians without an interpreter. He returned to Maryland and engaged in parish work till July, 1878, when, under direction of Maj. J. W. Powell, he went to the Omaha reservation in Nebraska in order to increase his stock of linguistic material. On the organization of the Bureau of Ethnology, in 1879, he was transferred thereto, and from that time he has been engaged continuously in linguistic and sociologic work for the Bureau. He remained among the Omaha till April, 1880, when he returned to Washington. Since then he has made several trips to Indian reservations for scientific purposes, not only to those occupied by tribes of the Siouan family, but also to the Siletz reservation, in Oregon. At the last place, which he visited in 1884, he obtained vocabularies, grammatic notes, &c. of languages spoken by Indians of the Athabascan, Kusan, Takilman, and Yakonan stocks. The reports of his office and field work will be found in the annual reports of the Bureau of Ethnology.

Mr. Hamilton was born in Lycoming (now Clinton) County, Pennsylvania, on August 1, 1811.

In his twenty-first year, having meanwhile remained on his father's farm, part of the time being engaged in study, he went to college at Washington, Pa., in what is now Washington and Jefferson College, from which he was graduated in 1834. He at once engaged in teaching in Wheeling, Va., going thence to Pittsburgh. He was licensed to preach in 1837, and was accepted by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions as their missionary, being ordained in October of the same year.

During the fall of 1837, having been married during the summer of the same year, Mr. Hamilton started westward, and spent the winter among the Iowa and Missouri Sac Indians on Wolf Creek, Nebraska, where Rev. S. F. Irvin and wife were stationed. Among these Indians Mr. Hamilton spent fifteen years.

In 1853 Mr. Hamilton was transferred to the Oto and Omaha Mission, Bellevue, Nebr., and since that time has been almost continually in the service of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

"When once I had got the word Tahetchiaben, which signifies in their language, How call you this? I began soon to be able to talk of such things as are most familiar. This difficulty was hard to surmount at first, because there was no Interpreter who understood both Tongues.

For example; If I had a mind to know what to run was in their Tongue, I was forc'd to mend my pace, and indeed actually to run from one end of the Cabin to t'other, till they understood what I meant, and had told me the Word; which I presently set down in my Dictionary. * * * One day they told me the Names of all the Parts of a Man's Body. However I forbore setting down several immodest Terms which these people scruple not to use every foot."—Hennepin.

Manuscript, about 1,700 pp. foolscap, preserved in the Library of Parliament, Ottawa, Canada. For this description I am indebted to the kindness of Mr. Charles N. Bell, of Winnipeg, who writes: "The sheets are evidently not the original ones used by Alexander Henry, but are rewritten from his journals by one George Coventry, who seems to have been a family friend. No date is given to the copying, nor is there any intimation where the original documents are to be found."

The journal extends from 1799 to 1812, and between the dates 1808 and 1809 are vocabularies of the Ojeebois, Knistineaux, Assiniboine, Slave, and Flat Head, about 300 words each of the first three and a somewhat larger number of the last two. Copies of these have been furnished the Bureau of Ethnology by Mr. Bell.

Mr. Hinman was born at Pittsburgh, Pa., January 17, 1839, and was educated at the Rectory School, Hamden, Conn., where, in 1856, he was made a teacher. In 1857 he taught in the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut, at Cheshire, and in 1858 in Bishop Seabury University, Faribault, Minn., being at the same time a student of divinity. In 1860 he was ordained a deacon by Bishop Whipple, and in the same year was appointed missionary to the Mdewakantonwan and Walipekute Dakotas at the Lower Sioux Agency, Minn. During the Sioux massacre of 1862, Mr. Hinman was one of the defenders of Ft. Ridgely.

In 1863 he was ordained priest, being at the time stationed at the camp of Indian prisoners at Ft. Snelling, Minn., from which point he accompanied the captive Sioux to Crow Creek, Dak., remaining as their missionary until 1865. From 1866 to 1876 he was stationed with the Santee near Niobrara, Nebr., and was made archdeacon of the diocese. While here he founded St. Mary's School.

At the treaty of Ft. Rice, in 1868, Mr. Hinman was the Santee interpreter, and in 1874 was the commissioner on the part of the United States for the purchase of the Black Hills, Dak. Since that time he has served the Government in various official capacities in connection with the Sioux; a portion of the time, during 1882, he was employed by the Bureau of Ethnology, Washington. Since 1886 Mr. Hinman has been in charge of the Mdewakantonwan School, near Redwood, Minn.

Iapi oaye. | Published by the Dakota Mission. Taku waste okiya, taku śica kipajin. Fifty Cents a Year. | Vol. I. May, 1871. No. I[–Vol. XVI. No. 7. July, 1887].

A four-page, small quarto paper, published monthly at Greenwood, Dak.; first issued May, 1871, with Rev. J. P. Williamson as editor, Mr. Williamson supervising the Yankton material, the Messrs. Riggs the Santee. The first volume, ending June, 1872, is entirely in the Dakota language. With the beginning of the second volume, January, 1873, the title was changed to Iapi oaye. The Word carrier, the size of the sheet increased, the first page illustrated, and the fourth page printed partly in English. At this time, also, Rev. Stephen R. Riggs was made principal editor, Mr. Williamson remaining as associate. At the beginning of the sixth volume, January, 1877, Rev. Alfred L. Riggs took the place of Mr. Williamson as associate editor, and the place of publication was changed to the Santee Agency, Nebr. With No. 1 of Vol. 9, January, 1880, the paper was enlarged to an eight-page monthly, the editorial management remaining unchanged. The death of Rev. S. R. Riggs, on August 24, 1883, left Rev. A. L. Riggs sole editor, his name alone appearing on the issue for October, 1883, Vol. 12, No. 10. The issue for December, 1883 contains a notice of certain changes to be made in the next issue, that for January, 1884, Vol. 13, No. 1. At this date the Dakota and English sections were separated, making two distinct papers, the Iapi oaye, in Dakota, and The Word carrier, in English. Rev. John P. Williamson was appointed editor of the former and Rev. Alfred L. Riggs of the latter. The title of the Iapi oaye was changed back to substantially its original form, the size of the paper reduced and the number of pages decreased to four, and the place of publication changed to Greenwood, Dak. The subscription price was increased to 60 cents per annum.

Irvin (Rev. Samuel McCleary). See Hamilton (W.) and Irvin (S. M.).

Mr. Irvin was born in Western Pennsylvania in 1812. A call having been made by the Western Foreign Missionary Society for teachers among the western Indians, Mr. Irvin offered his services, and in 1837 he was married and started westward. His first stop was among the Sac and Fox Indians, where is now Doniphan County, Kansas. Soon after, he was licensed and was ordained to the ministry. For nearly thirty years Mr. Irvin devoted himself to the Indian missions. At present he is spending his time, under the direction of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, chiefly among the few Iowa and Sac Indians living at the mouth of the Great Nemaha River.

—— [History of the Dakotas and other North-American Indians.]

Manuscript in the library of the Minnesota Historical Society, concerning which Mr. J. Fletcher Williams, the librarian of the society, writes me as follows:

"When Mr. Lynd was murdered by the very savages whose origin, history, religion, and language he had so conscientiously labored to illustrate in his work, the manuscript was in his trunk, in an apartment of the trading house where he was employed. It then consisted of perhaps 600 pages of foolscap and was complete and ready for the press. The Indians threw the package out on the floor, in search of money or other valuables, and the leaves became scattered on the floor. A few days afterward the troops occupied the building as quarters, and, unfortunately, no one knowing the value of the manuscript or not caring for it, it was used for waste paper, until an officer with more intelligence than the rest noticed it and saved the remainder in a soiled and torn state. Out of the 600 pages which it had originally contained, only 172 leaves remained. No one chapter remains complete. Sometimes there are several consecutive leaves, with a break of many pages. The chapter on language has now only four leaves. One of these is marked xxvi, showing that it was of considerable length. Other references to the Dakota language are scattered throughout the work. Mr. Lynd seems to have had a theory of the European origin of the tongue. He gives two tables, one page each, to show similarity between Dakota and European words."

A. | Translated into the | language of the | Otoe, Ioway, and Missouri | tribes of Indians | by Moses Merrill | Missionary of the Baptist Board of Foreign Missions | assisted by Louis Dorion interpreter | Part I. | Meeker Printer Shawanoe Baptist Mission | 1837

Mr. Merrill, the fourth son of Rev. Daniel Merrill, A. M., of Sedgwick, Me., was born December 15, 1803. In 1828 he was licensed to preach, and in 1832 was ordained a minister in the Baptist Church. On June 1, 1830, he was married to Eliza, the daughter of Gen. Silvanus Wilcox, of Charleston, N. Y. About the time of his ordination he and Mrs. Merrill were appointed missionaries to the Indians by the Baptist Board of Foreign Missions, and were directed to labor on the shores of Lake Superior. They left the State of Maine in August of that year and arrived at Sault Ste. Marie in October. There, in company with Messrs. Bingham and Meeker, they spent the winter in missionary labors, designing to ascend to Lake Superior in the following spring. Previous to their departure, however, the Board of Missions directed them to a more promising field of labor.

They left Sault Ste. Marie in May, 1833, and arrived at the Shawanoe Mission House, within the then Indian Territory, on the 13th of the following July. In October they departed for their station among the Oto. In reaching this they had to penetrate the wilderness about two hundred miles from Shawanoe, a journey of twenty-four days. The Oto village was on the south bank of the Platte River near its junction with the Missouri, the mission station being on the north bank. Upon their arrival Mr. and Mrs. Merrill entered zealously upon their labors and early undertook to learn the Oto language. Mr. Merrill became so fluent as to preach to the Indians in their own tongue. He died February 6, 1840.

The work of translation into the Oto dialect was undertaken the next year after the opening of the mission at Bellevue. The interpreter first employed could only translate from the French language; and from that the words were put into Oto. September 3, 1834, Mr. Merrill writes: "I have now in press a small work for the Otoes. In making my translations I am obliged to employ two interpreters, a French and an Otoe, and besides this I have to ride twenty miles to the trading post to get them."

This pamphlet is doubtless the Oto Hymn Book titled above.

In Mr. Merrill's journal under date of November 17, 1834, occurs this entry: "Preparing manuscript for second Otoe reading book," and under date of April 16, 1835, "My third Otoe book is printed."

I am indebted to Mr. S. P. Merrill, Rochester, N. Y., a son of the author, for the above notes.

Literal translation: Sacred-great [God] house the road. [Road to heaven.]

No title-page, half-title as above, pp. 1–56, 1–24, 1–8, 16°, in the Dakota language, Santee dialect.

The first edition, the author informs me, was published in 1843 or 1844. Williams's Minnesota Bibliography gives a title of the second edition with half-title as above and the imprint: St. Paul: Pioneer Office. 1863. The Minnesota Historical Society owned a copy of this later edition, but it was burned in the fire of 1881 which destroyed the State capitol. I am unable to determine whether the above is a copy of the first edition or of the second.

The hymns were translated by S. R. Riggs, G. H. Pond, S. W. Pond, T. S. Williamson, J. Renville, and A. L. Riggs.

Joseph Renville was of mixed extraction, his father a French trader and his mother a Dakota. According to his own statement he was born on the Mississippi River, a few miles below the town of St. Paul, about the year 1779. His early childhood was passed in the wigwam of his mother, but when about ten years of age he was taken by his father to Canada and placed under the care of a Catholic priest, from whom he received a knowledge of the French language. Before reaching manhood he returned to the people among whom his early life was passed. During the war of 1812 he received an appointment as captain in the British army and with Dakota warriors marched to the American frontier. About 1822 he occupied a trading post at Lake Traverse, removing thence to Lac-qui-parle, Minn. In 1841 Mr. Renville was chosen and ordained a ruling elder, discharging the duties of this office until his death. He died in March, 1846, at Lac-qui-parle, having spent more than half a century among the Dakota. Nearly all the translations into the Dakota language up to the time of his death were either made or supervised by him, and to his ability in this direction frequent tribute is paid by the members of the Dakota mission.

Stephen Return Riggs, the son of Stephen Riggs and Anna Baird, was born at Steubenville, Ohio, March 23, 1812. He prepared for college at the Ripley (Ohio) Latin School, graduated at Jefferson College in 1834, and attended the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny one year, 1835–'36. He was ordained to the gospel ministry in the Presbyterian Church in the spring of 1837. Married Mary Ann Clark Longley, daughter of General Longley, of Hawley, Mass., February 16, 1837. Was commissioned missionary to the Dakota Indians by the American Board and reached his field at Fort Snelling, Minn., June 1, 1837. Was stationed temporarily at Lake Harriet Station, near Fort Snelling. Arrived at Lac-qui-parle, on the Upper Minnesota River, in the autumn of the same year. Here he remained until the spring of 1842, when he went east and superintended the printing of considerable portions of the Bible in the Dakota language and also a hymn book and school books.

On his return to Dakota land in the spring of 1843 he opened a new mission station at Traverse des Sioux, near what is now Saint Peter, Minn. By vote of the mission he was sent back to Lac-qui-parle in the fall of 1846. In the fall of 1851 he made another journey east, when the Dakota grammar and dictionary was printed. After the burning of the mission buildings in 1854 a new station was opened at Hazelwood, near Yellow Medicine, where he continued to labor until obliged to flee with his family at the time of the Sioux outbreak in 1862. Escaping that massacre, his family found a home for three years at Saint Anthony. During this time he was serving the government as chaplain of General Sibley's expedition of 1862 and as interpreter of his expedition against the hostiles in 1863.

His home was removed to Beloit, Wis., in 1865, where he spent his winters working on the translation of the Bible into Dakota and on other books, for the benefit of the Indians. His summers were spent in tours through the Indian country.

In 1870 he began a new station at Sisseton Agency, but returned to reside at Beloit, and died there August 24, 1883.

His wife having died in Beloit on March 22, 1869, Mr. Riggs married May 28, 1872, Mrs. Anna B. Ackley, of Granville, Ohio.

"Mr. Stevens began missionary work among the Dakotas in the spring of 1835 and withdrew from the mission in the spring of 1839. He did not learn the Dakota language nor give the Indians any instruction, but he kept in his family five or six half-breed girls who were taught by his niece, Miss Lucy E. Stevens."—S. W. Pond.

"Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were from Central New York, and were engaged as early as 1827 in missionary labors on the Island of Mackinaw. In 1829 Mr. Stevens and Rev. Mr. Coe made a tour of exploration through the wilds of Northern Wisconsin, coming as far as Ft. Snelling. For several years after, Mr. Stevens was connected with the Stockbridge mission on Fox Lake, and in the summer of 1835 he had commenced this station at Lake Harriet.

"Mr. Stevens had gathered from various sources a vocabulary of five or six hundred words. This formed the commencement of the growth of the Dakota grammar and dictionary which I published fifteen years afterwards."—S. R. Riggs.

Though printed for the most part from the same plates as the edition of 1877, a change in the pagination will be noticed, i. e., pp. 391–478 in the former become 391–755 in this edition. This is caused by the following additions: First and Second Kings, pp. 479–569; First and Second Chronicles, pp. 570–663; Ezra, pp. 664–680; Nehemiah, pp. 680–702; Esther, pp. 703–715; Job, pp. 715–755.

Unlike the 1874 edition, the different parts, with the exception of the New Testament, are not preceded by separate title-pages, and I am unable to give each translator credit for his part of the above.

The title-page of the New Testament, translated by S. R. Riggs, is exactly like that of the edition of 1874.

These additions make the Dakota Bible complete—the first, so far as I know, except the Cree and Eskimo, in any Indian tongue since Eliot's Bible in the Massachusetts language. The Muskoki is nearly complete.

Dr. Williamson, "the father of the Dakota mission," was born in Union District, S. C., in March, 1800, and died in St. Peter, Minn., June 24, 1879. He completed his medical education at Yale College, graduating in 1824, and settled at Ripley, Ohio, where he was married April 10, 1827. In the spring of 1834, under the auspices of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, he made a trip as far west as Ft. Snelling. Returning to Ohio, he was ordained as missionary by the Chillicothe Presbytery, and soon after was appointed by the board as missionary to the Dakotas. In April, 1835, Dr. Williamson left for his field of work and arrived at Ft. Snelling May 16. He remained among the Dakota as missionary until the outbreak in 1861.
